To ensure that our records are current and that, in the future, we can calculate retirement benefits for you and your family correctly, please complete the New Assignment Notice and return it to us as soon as possible. Please be sure that the form is signed by you and a representative of all churches or church-related units that provide compensation. As you complete the form, the following definitions may be helpful:

- ◇ Source: The church (or church-related unit) that pays any or all of your compensation. Include the full name and mailing address.
- ◇ Effective Date: This is the beginning date for your compensation in your new assignment.
- ◇ Cash Stipend: Salary, bonuses, one-time cash payments, tuition paid for your dependents, and any salary reduction used to fund an annuity, TSA, 403(b) plan, or RSVP.
- ◇ Social Security: Any payments given to you to offset your cost for self-employment taxes in accordance with SECA.
- ◇ Utilities: Amounts you receive for utilities (including fuel, gas, electric, etc.), or which are paid for you.
- ◇ If your housing is provided rent-free, check Y. For pension purposes, your housing allowance will then be assumed at 30% of the total of your cash stipend, Social Security, and utilities.
- ◇ If both housing and meals are provided free-of-charge, your housing allowance will then be assumed at 40% of your cash stipend, Social Security and utilities.
- ◇ If you receive an actual housing allowance or a housing equity allowance, provide the actual amount. For pension purposes, effective January 1, 2006, the actual cash and housing equity amount will be used.
- ◇ If your housing is provided rent free and in addition you also receive a cash housing allowance or housing equity allowance, check Y and also give the amount of the cash housing allowance or housing equity allowance. For pension purposes, your housing allowance will then be assumed at 30% of the total of your cash stipend, Social Security, and utilities. Then, the cash housing allowance or housing equity allowance is added.
- ◇ If you receive compensation from more than one church or church-related unit, but only one provides housing, both/all are assessed for a proportionate share of your housing.
